

The Sports Business Academy presented by Malka Sports, is for high school and college students looking to gain insight into the business of sports. This three day event, taking place August 5-7, 2019, will educate students to the wide range of jobs that exist within the sports world. We provide students an opportunity to learn about the business from executives who have practical experience in the field. For more information visit SBA.MalkaSports.com

We are in the process of lining up more than dozen sports business professionals and will be announcing the lineup shortly!

Previous speakers have included: Ernie Accorsi, Brian Cashman, Scott O'Neil, Adrian Wojnarowski, Jean Afterman, Jeremy Schaap, Kimberly Jones, Tim Perneti, Frank Isola, Jane McManus, Carol Blazejowski and Harold Reynolds.

Key Points

- Having a job in the sports industry is very attainable.
- Students will not achieve success in the field simply because they are sportsfans.
- With the industry growing at a rapid pace, it's imperative to learn about the business in real time from executives in the field.
- The earlier a student attains an understanding of the business of sports, the greater the advantage they will have over their peers.
