Daily Announcements Monday, April 22, 2019

Today is a Specialized Delayed Opening Schedule and is Day 3. See Schoology for the times of class periods today

Please come to COFFEEHOUSE 46 at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 25, in the Cafeteria for a wonderful night of music and poetry. Admission is just $5.00. Don't miss this show!

All students who are interested in becoming a class officer or a member of the student council can find applications on the school website or on their class page on Schoology. Applications for officers are due by May 1st. No late applications will be accepted. See your class advisor or Ms. Bennin for questions about applications or elections.

NJSLA Testing continues tomorrow. All information has been sent to you in Schoology, including the classroom you are to report to. Be on time! Remember to bring compatible headphones, your charged laptop and something to write with. All students not testing should report to school at 9:20 AM.

The Word of the Day is gallant - noble in spirit; brave. As he put his jacket in the puddle so that she could step without muddying her shoes, he thought to himself "This might possibly be the most gallant -- and the most ridiculous -- thing I'll ever do!"
