Daily Announcements Wednesday, February 13, 2019

Today is a Day 4.

High School Sports Physicals & confirmation slips will be collected today for Boys & Girls Lacrosse & Golf and tomorrow, the collection will be for Track.

The Class of 2021 will be holding a Valentine's Day Bake Sale tomorrow after school, in the Hamilton Lobby. Come grab some sweet treats and support the Sophomore Class!

There will be an important 7-Elements Club meeting today right after school in Room D223. Please attend to help plan the Moth Story Slam. If you can't make it, see Ms. Metsch-Ampel.

The LEAP Club is excited to be hosting a lunch time Valentine's Day Party. All are welcome during lunch in Room C130 tomorrow. Join us for snacks, games, and a movie!

AP Assessments continue this week. Today, 9th and 10th graders taking Social Studies assessments should attend. Tomorrow, Tomorrow, AP English Language and AP Calculus assessments will be given. All exams are at 2 PM in the High School cafeteria.

The Word of the Day is pliant - capable of being bent; yielding; flexible. He was quite pliant as far as boyfriends go: he seemed to have no opinions or wishes of his own, and was always willing to do what she wanted.
